

Travel Counsellors

United Kingdom

We're Travel Counsellors, an award winning travel company that holds customer service close to our heart. We're a global network of friendly and professional travel experts providing personalised travel arrangements for leisure and business customers. We're the UK's largest independent travel company, with 1,400 personal Travel Counsellors worldwide. Founded in 1994, we're all about creating perfect travel experiences and we do this by getting to know our customers personally - their hopes, their dreams and their aspirations. Your Travel Counsellor will take the time to get to know you and tailor your perfect holiday. A unique network, sharing the destination knowledge and experience of more than 1,500 caring travel professionals. Every penny of your booking is completely protected by our unique financial protection trust. Our Travel Counsellors are committed to finding you incredible holidays. Maybe that's why our trophy cabinet is so jam-packed. Whether you're looking for a far away adventure or a weekend escape, browse our holiday ideas to discuss with a Travel Counsellor of your choice. Let our independent Travel Counsellors help you choose a holiday tailored perfectly for you. With an average 22 years travel experience we have more than 1500 Travel Counsellors worldwide who all take enormous pride in what they do. Their first-hand knowledge and passion for travel means that our customers continually rate us the best travel company in the world for customer service. Whether you are looking to relax and recuperate, or explore and discover; your Travel Counsellor will give you the very best, hassle free holiday advice.
